REPORTS

- Last week's meeting of the Golf Committee moved ahead now that sponsorship has reached a reasonable level of 9 Silver sponsors. Confirmatory letters and accounts will be sent out in April to all agreed sponsors. Player application flyers are being prepared for distribution as soon as possible.

All Members are asked to see if they can get further sponsors and to begin seeking out teams and players for the Golf Day.

- Yesterday the Club's Application for a Presidential Citation was forwarded to the District Governor for consideration.

-For the assistance of some of the newer Members and to clarify some Club Meeting tasks that need to be done each week this may be of assistance to those rostered. These may not include all duties but are a guide

PRES'S PONDERINGS

* Last Friday was another special day as we welcomed Frank Cassells into Club membership and also his wife Kathy into our Rotary Family. On 26 March we will be inducting Margaret Turner and Jennifer Hughes Bystrom into the Club who from details in their proposals will have much to contribute to the Club. Their induction will bring our numbers up to 29.

* Buderim Rotary was well represented at the Funeral of our late Honorary Member Allan Wiles and mention was made by his son Adrian in his eulogy of Allan's long term membership and commitment to Rotary. He will be sadly missed.

* Fusion Australia members were delighted last Friday when I delivered the cheque for $500 to their Ballinger Road Office. They will now be able to send one more young person on their Central Australia Safari bringing the total of local participants to twenty-two. A further eight will be coming from northern Queensland.

 As next week is our International Trivia Night there will be no Journal circulated so check duties for next week in this issue. I will be interstate from Friday 'arvo' until next Friday afternoon 19th.

Important Dates

* FRIDAY NIGHT 19th March is now our International Trivia Night
